1 INTRODUCTORY EXPLANATIONS

New University Report on the scientific, professional and research work by the operators of study programmes in the period 2013-2018 was drafted in accordance with the Criteria for the accreditation and external evaluation of higher education institutions and study programmes, published in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, p. 6184 / No. 42 / 4. 8. 2017, and Article 52 (form for reaccreditation of a higher education institute, standard 3 within which it is verified whether the higher institution shows quality, scientific professional, research or artistic activity and the related significant achievements in the relevant fields and disciplines.¹

The New University Development Strategy 2018 – 2021 includes key strategic objectives in the field of research activity:

1. Carrying out research activity.
2. Applying for research programmes and projects.
3. Participation in conferences at home and abroad.
4. Promotion of the achievements of scientific and research work.

The fundamental objective of New University in the field of research is to become and remain a nationally and internationally recognised excellent research organisation.

Both, the New University Strategy and the Quality Manual, adopted by the New University Senate on 9 February 2018 define fundamental processes, important for the achievement of strategic objectives such as:

- To include new members in research groups.
- To encourage researchers to publish even more jointly and to publish research results in the form of reports and articles.
- To increase the number of original scientific articles, published by the members of the New University research groups.
- To strengthen scientific publicity of research groups.
- To follow calls and projects and prepare and submit applications.
- To encourage teaching staff for individual research work and renewal of habilitation titles.
- To attend and actively participate in domestic and foreign conferences.
- To establish communication with public and dissemination of scientific achievements.

At New University, scientific and research work is carried out by the following research organisations and groups:²

1. European Faculty of Law (EVRO-PF)

o Institute for Research in Law, head Assoc. Prof. Dr. Novak Marko

Researchers: 31643, 08098, 28316, 31006, 36556, 26014, 23043, 31712

o Institute for Managing Real Estate, head Assist. Prof. Dr. Grum Bojan

Researchers: 28680, 23005, 11010, 10635, 36557, 05559

¹ The basis for the adoption of Criteria is the Higher Education Act (Official Gazette of the RS, No. 32/12 – official consolidated text 7, 40/12 – Fiscal Balance Act, 57/12 – ZPCP-2D, 109/12, 85/14, and 75/16).

² Researchers are indicated by the Slovenian Research Agency codes. Extract as of 2 July 2019.

2. Faculty of Government and European studies (FDŠ)

o Research group of the Faculty of Government and European studies, head Prof. Dr. Avbelj Matej

Researchers: 31643, 39756, 50232, 35871, 35652, 32577, 35870, 36387, 26014, 39554

3. Faculty of Slovenian and International Studies (FSMŠ)

o Institute for Slovenian Studies, head Prof. Dr. Darko Darovec.

Researchers: 10728, 37533, 29337, 31712

4. Institute of Constitutional Organisation and Human Rights (IČP)

5. New University (NU)

o Scientific and research Centre of New University, head Prof. Dr. Darko Darovec

Researchers: 10728, 31712.

New University is registered at the Slovenian Research Agency as a research organisation under No. 3834. Scientific and Research Centre, organised within New University, is headed by Prof. Dr. Darko Darovec.

The activities within the institutes are focused on more intensive cooperation, exchange of research experience, publication of the achieved results in the form of scientific and academic articles and preparation of new projects. NU research organisations, member faculties and their centres and institutes develop scientific and research work, focused on cooperation and interdisciplinary integration.

The holders of the New University research activities are members of the research groups of the New University members and holders of subjects at the three levels of study³, who are involved in domestic and international research projects and thus contribute to the development of science and discipline, career development and the recognition of the university. Several researchers are members of the university research groups, representing the university and its members in various research areas in the field of social sciences and humanities. Bibliographic indicators of research performance for the members of the NU research organisations and groups are listed below. The university encourages employed lecturers and researchers for individual research work and to apply new domestic and foreign research projects for the development and upgrading of the university study fields. It takes care about further development of research groups and quality research results.

New University boasts excellent academic and scientific and research staff, who are achieving top nationally and internationally recognised scientific achievements. It has become a quality and recognised research institution in a short time. Its active researchers are successful in obtaining fundamental research projects at the calls by the Slovenian Research Agency. Furthermore, the university is successfully applying to development calls by the Ministry of Education, Science and Sport.

In next five-year period New University will be strengthening its scientific and research staff, particularly by employing young researchers and including students in the research process. Employing young researchers and inclusion of mainly post-graduate students will result in building continuous studies and strengthening its own scientific and research core.

2 BIBLIOGRAPHIC INDICATORS OF THE NEW UNIVERSITY RESEARCH PERFORMANCE (2013-2018)

Cumulative review of bibliographic indicators of research performance of the members of NU research groups for the period from 2013 to 2018:

1. Evaluation of quality, development and progress of scientific, professional and research activity of the members of NU research groups and holders of subjects at NU study programmes; and
2. Evaluation of the significance (influence, publicity, applicability,...) of the achievements by the members of NU research groups and holders of subjects at NU study programmes.

According to the list of bibliographic units for scientific and professional works by the members of NU research groups and holders of subjects of the NU study programmes for the period from 2013 to 2018, a sharp increase and development of scientific, professional and research activity is recorded by scientific and research activity at the NU.

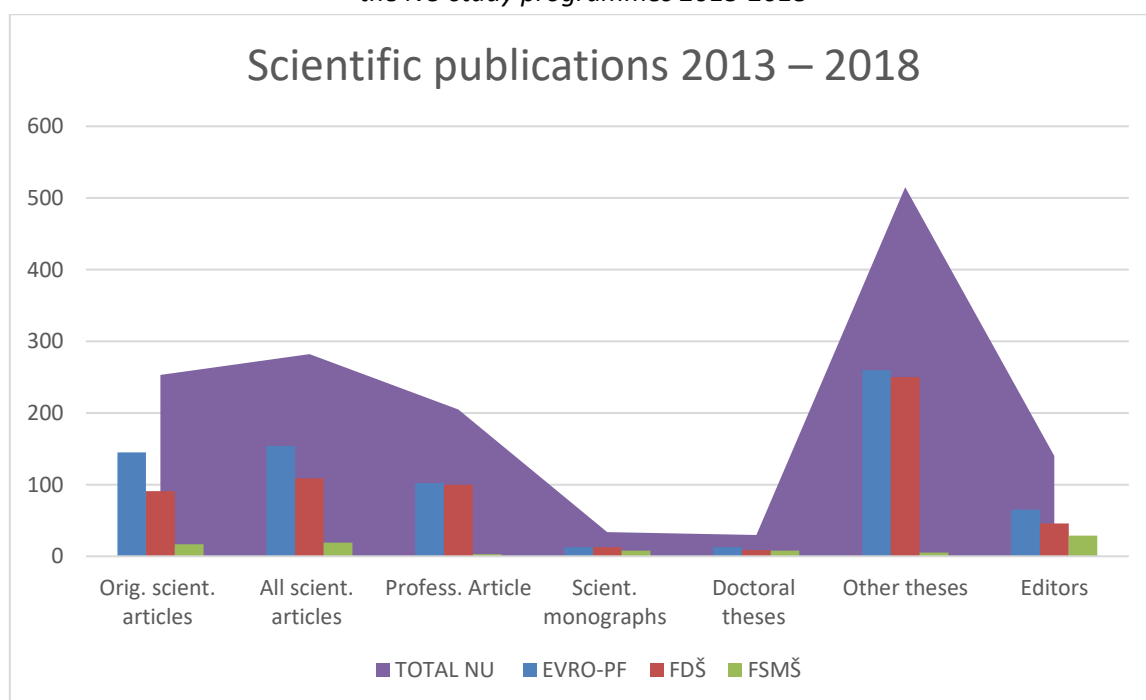

The list shows also high quality of scientific and research work by the members of the NU research organisations. In total, in the six-year period members of the NU research organisations published 2,176 works, of which 253 original scientific articles. Most articles were published by the members of the research organisation at the European Faculty of Law, which is proportional to the scope of its operation. Members of the NU research organisations were editors of 140 publications (journals, conference proceedings, and scientific monographs), of which editors of 14 journals, indexed by SCI Expanded, SSCI, Scopus (d) or Scopus (h) or A&HCI or Scopus (except d and h). Other editing is regarded as professional performance. Člani raziskovalnih skupin NU in nosilcev predmetov na študijskih programih NU so bili mentorji 30 doktorskim disertacijam, ter dodatno osmim doktorskim disertacijam Co-Mentorji. Izjemno je tudi število 515 drugih, magistrskih, diplomskih in specialističnih del, kjer so bili mentorji člani raziskovalnih skupin NU in nosilcev predmetov na študijskih programih NU.

Members of the NU research groups and holders of subjects at the NU study programmes mentored 30 doctoral theses, and co-mentored 8 doctoral theses. Members of the NU research groups and holders of subjects at the NU study programmes mentored as many as 515 other, masters, graduate and specialist works. In the six years, 34 scientific monographs were published, 8 of which by the research organisation at the Faculty of Slovenian and International Studies, which is an extremely important achievement for the field of humanities.

Members of the NU research groups and holders of subjects at the NU study programmes participated also in preparing a scientific terminological dictionary Pravni terminološki slovar, (Zbirka Slovarji). 1. izd. Ljubljana: Založba ZRC, ZRC SAZU, 2018. 418 p. ISBN 978-961-05-0022-3. [COBISS.SI-ID 293556224], which is regarded as a very important achievement for the progress of the profession at the national level.

In 2013-2018 the research organisation at the European Faculty of Law participated in 3 Slovenian Research Agency projects and in 1 programme. It was the leading research organisation in project V5-1607, Legal classification of the status of a farmer, including economic, environment and social measures. In addition, during that period the research organisation at the European Faculty of Law participated in as many as 9 international projects, one of the most significant being a project, financed within EU programme H2020 for research and innovations, H2020-BENEFIT, project No. 193363. As a partner, the research organisation at the European Faculty of Law participated in Norwegian research project Forskningsrade VALUE FOR OWNERS AND END-USERS OF PROPERTY, and in project EU COST-TU1001 - Public Private Partnerships in Transport: Trends and Theory. During 2013-2018, the research organisation of the Faculty of Government and European studies participated in 4 Slovenian Research Agency projects, while the research organisation at the Faculty of Slovenian and International Studies participates as a partner in 1 Slovenian Research Agency project.

New University promotes the research activity of its research organisations in the form of scientific monographs, published by the NU university publishing. In the period 2013-2018 the university publishing issued 19 monographs. As a part of study literature, the published scientific monographs allow the university members to include scientific knowledge also in the study process. Publications of scientific and research evidence are available in the university scientific journal Dignitas.

Members of the NU research organisations have received the following Slovenian awards for scientific and professional achievements:

- Deset najvplivnejših pravnikov, LEXPERA; (Ten most influential lawyers)
- Priznanje za življenjsko delo, Zveza društev pravnikov Slovenije; (Award for Life's Work, Slovenian Lawyers' Federation)
- Prometej znanosti, SAZU; (Prometheus of Science, Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts)
- Odličnost na področju raziskovanja in pedagoškega dela, New University; (Excellence in the field of research and teaching work, New University)
- Odlični v znanosti, ARRS (Excellent in Science, Slovenian Research Agency).

Abroad, members of the NU research organisations have received the following awards for scientific and professional achievements:

- Highly Commended award, Journal of Corporate Real Estate, Emerald Publishing, the Netherlands;
- Outstanding Contribution in Reviewing, Elsevier, the Netherlands;
- Fulbright Scholarship, Visiting Professor, USA;
- Crystal plaque, SGEM award for science, SGEM world science, Italy.

In the field of scientific and research activity New University organises major events with respectable experts from domestic and international institutions. The following should be pointed out:

- New University academic forums, where the most current social topics from the field of the university activity are discussed;
- annual International doctoral scientific and research conferences, aimed at the presentation of research work by post-graduate students;
- International conference The Future of the Rule of Law and Democracy in Europe;

- Student conference NUŠKA where the achievements of students in the field of law, public administration, administrative and international law, and diplomacy are presented; and
- numerous other meetings, consultations, round tables and events with the current social contents.

New University awards Golden Plaque and Charter of Excellence for professional and quality work for exceptional merits in the development of scientific and teaching creation of New University and strengthening its reputation.

Significant achievements with references and lists of quantitative assessments by the Slovenian Research Agency are listed below for each research organisation, member of New University.

2.1 BIBLIOGRAPHICAL REFERENCES OF SCIENTIFIC AND PROFESSIONAL PUBLICATIONS BY NEW UNIVERSITY COURSE LECTURERS AND MENTORS

Bibliographical references report on scientific and professional publications of course lecturers and mentors working at the New University was made on the basis of available data from Slovenian Cooperative Online Bibliographic System and Services COBISS.SI/COBIB.SI, in the period between July 25 to August 2 2019. Data on the number of citations of scientific works and H-indeks in the past 10 years (2009-2019) are subject of constant change and update by the bibliographic system.

3 BIBLIOGRAPHICAL REFERENCES OF SCIENTIFIC AND PROFESSIONAL PUBLICATIONS OF RESEARCHERS AT NEW UNIVERSITY IN THE PERIOD 2013-2018

In the years 2013-2018 New University had three(3) specific priority goals associated with the research enhancement:

1. To increase the number of original scientific articles published by members of the New University Research Groups.
2. To increase and strengthen the scientific impact of the members of the New University Research Groups.
3. To increase the percentage of publications co-authored with foreign researchers.

In the table below there are percents given for the period of 5 years, with the starting year 2013 and for the final year 2018.

Table 3: Strategic goal indicators 2013-2018
